Come on an African journey...

... a journey to remember
... a journey with purpose

This is your chance to experience rural Lesotho, a rare African travel experience beyond the capital cities. Be moved and inspired as you play and laugh with, and learn from, children, youth and grandmothers. You are invited to step into the daily experience of Help Lesotho programs, and learn firsthand about the challenges of this incredibly beautiful country and the joy and resiliency of its people.

Join us, you are welcome!

Help Lesotho is a registered Canadian charity operating in Lesotho since 2004.
The Mountain Kingdom Awaits

We'd love to welcome you and share Help Lesotho’s work, spaces and participant communities. Activities will balance truly meaningful experiences with time to relax, have fun, and enjoy the countryside.

Hear from young mothers as they share their stories of overcoming hardship and building new life skills. Meet herd boys who are finally being given the opportunity to be seen as respected members of their communities. Play with new friends in small villages while helping families improve their homes.

Read English books to children at their schools in remote, mountainous communities. Sing and dance at a Grandmother Day with the grannies who are raising children orphaned by HIV/AIDS. Interact with Help Lesotho staff and get an understanding of the important work that happens at our centres.

“The Young Mother Program is so important because it teach me how to handle the family, how to communicate with other people, how to teach other young mothers at home what they should do, and how to start a project with other young mothers so we can make money. My life is so better.”

- Ntlokholo

“Help Lesotho changed my life. Before [the Grandmother Support Program] I was very depressed, I had lost so much in my life, Help Lesotho helped me talk about my grief.”

- Nkhono Mary

Overview and Logistics

The Mountain Kingdom Awaits

Our team’s goal when hosting guests is to share an authentic, inspiring experience. Whether over a quiet cup of coffee (or Lesotho rooibos tea!) while watching the sunrise or a lively conversation en route to a new experience, the opportunities to learn, share, and process are endless.

Meet your host!

Kate Lambert, Help Lesotho’s acting Executive Director, will share her unique perspective gained over fourteen years of working with the organization. She is intimately familiar with the design of Help Lesotho’s programs and looks forward to sharing the impact that your support has, saying, “seeing our programs first-hand is unlike anything you can imagine, I hope you will join us!”

March is an ideal time to visit Lesotho, with fields of beautiful pink cosmos in full bloom and many warm sunny days!
The Mountain Kingdom Awaits

Guests to the Mountain Kingdom form deep bonds within the group as well as with the staff and participants they meet.

“I’ve always wanted to go to Africa. When I heard about the Help Lesotho trip, I thought it would be a great opportunity to see the grassroots work Help Lesotho is doing—especially with the grandmothers. I was so impressed by the people I met and the programs I witnessed. Help Lesotho is making such a difference. Everything about the trip surpassed my expectations—I wished it was longer!”

- M. Turnbull

“When youth discuss grief over the loss of parents and family members, when you see poverty and how it affects people, you begin to appreciate the impact HL is having and how it is building for the future.”

- B. Austin

“Seeing is believing. Intellectually we realise the value in helping people in need but having the opportunity and privilege of seeing and meeting the people of Lesotho where they live makes it impossible not to be driven to help in any way possible.”

- J. Sullivan

“After coming to Help Lesotho, now I make good decisions. I can accept myself. Looking back, I would have done things differently in my life, but now I am focused on the future.”

Purpose: BUILDING LEADERS

By visiting The Mountain Kingdom on this special trip, you will support Help Lesotho’s work to equip, empower and mobilize children, youth and grandmothers as leaders who are motivated to take action for the benefit of others.

Help Lesotho’s programs assist participants to develop new skills, develop knowledge that empowers healthy decisions, build confidence to lead and mobilize others to affect change in their families and communities. Your donation will support our programs that enable youth to finish high school, learn practical life skills, and become engaged as strong community advocates and influencers for positive social change.

Please join us in this life changing work!
